

Exemptions from the payment

Under certain circumstances, you won't have to make the individual responsibility payment. This is called an "exemption."

You may qualify for an exemption if:

- You're uninsured for less than 3 months of the year
- The lowest-priced coverage available to you would cost more than 8% of your household income
- You don't have to file a tax return because your income is too low (Learn about the filing limit.)
- You're a member of a federally recognized tribe or eligible for services through an Indian Health Services provider
- You're a member of a recognized health care sharing ministry
- You're a member of a recognized religious sect with religious objections to insurance, including Social Security and Medicare
- You're incarcerated, and not awaiting the disposition of charges against you
- You're not lawfully present in the U.S.
