

You can apply for or re-enroll in your Marketplace coverage by clicking here, by calling us here directly at 215-355-2121.

To help make the application process quicker and easier, gather these things before you start your application. You won't need all of these if you're applying for coverage without financial help and if you have any questions about anything requested here, you can always give us a call. We will be glad to answer your questions/concerns!

CHECKLIST

What do I need?	Why do I need this?	Have it ready!
Your information	Your Marketplace application will ask you for some basic information, including your name and date of birth.
Information about your household	Your Marketplace application will ask you about each person in your household, even those not applying for coverage. For the Marketplace, your household usually includes the tax filers and their tax dependents, but there are exceptions. Sometimes the Marketplace includes people you live with who aren't in your tax household. You should include yourself on your application. Here's a basic list of the other people you should generally include, if these people are in your household: Your spouse Your children who live with you, even if they make enough money to file a tax return themselves Anyone you include on your tax return as a dependent, even if they don't live with you Anyone else under 21 who you take care of and who lives with you Your unmarried partner, only if one or both of these apply: They're your dependent for tax purposes They're the parent of your child
Home and/or mailing addresses for everyone applying for coverage	Where you live can affect what health coverage you're eligible for You'll enter your home address to show if you're a resident of the where you're seeking coverage (you'll select your state at the begathe application). You can't list a P.O. box as your home address. You'll be asked for your mailing address. Often, this will be the shome address. If it's not, provide a mailing address in the state you can. You can enter a street address or a P.O. box. If anyone on your application has a different home and/or mailing address, you'll need to have it also.	e state ginning of ame as your

Information about everyone applying for coverage	Your Marketplace application will ask you to enter some basic information about everyone applying for coverage, including their relationship to you. Relationships include: spouse, domestic partner, parent, stepparent, parent domestic partner, son/daughter, stepson/stepdaughter, child of domestic partner, brother/sister, uncle/aunt, and nephew/niece.	i's
Social Security Numbers (SSNs) for everyone on your application	Your Marketplace application will ask you to enter each person's 9-digit SSN, even those not applying for coverage. The Marketplace will verify the SSNs with Social Security, based on the consent you'll give at the start of your application. If you don't enter an SSN, you may need to provide more information at a later time.
Information about the professional helping you apply (this only applies if you're getting help completing your application)	If a professional is helping you complete your application, you'll need to enter their information. These professionals include: navigators, certified application counselors, in-person assistance personnel, agents, and brokers.
Immigration document information (this only applies to lawfully present immigrants)	If you or anyone else on your application is a lawfully present immigrant, you'll be asked to provide information from your immigration documents.
Information on how you'll file your taxes	If you file federal income taxes, the Marketplace needs to know:If you're married, do you file separately or jointly?Who do you claim as a tax dependent?

Your Marketplace application may ask you about the income, expenses, and deductions of everyone in your household, even those not applying for coverage. The Marketplace accounts for income sources, including: Wages and salaries, as reported on your W-2 form and pay stubs Employer & Tips income Net income from any self-employment or business information for Unemployment compensation everyone in your Social Security payments, including disability payments (but not household Supplemental Security Income (SSI)) Alimony Retirement or pension income, including most IRA or 401k withdrawals. Investment income, like dividends or interest Rental income Other taxable income Your Marketplace application may ask you to estimate what your household's income will be in the year you'll be covered. Your best estimate If you're not sure, it's okay to make your best estimate. If your income of your household changes, or is different than what you estimated, you'll need to update this income information later. Your Marketplace application will ask if anyone in your Health coverage household is currently enrolled in health coverage, including information (this Medicaid, the Children's Health only applies if Insurance Program (CHIP), Medicare, TRICARE, VA health care program, anyone in your Peace Corps, or coverage through individual insurance or an employer. household currently If anyone has coverage now, gather their policy numbers. You can has a health plan) find this information on their insurance card or documents they get from their plan. Your Marketplace application will ask you to enter information about offers of health coverage you may have through your job or through a family member's job. It will also ask you to enter employer contact Employer information for each person in your household who has a job. information for each person in You should fill out an "Employer Coverage Tool" for each member of your your household family who's eligible for a job-based plan, even if that person isn't enrolled in the job based plan or isn't applying for Marketplace coverage. You can get this information from your employer. This optional tool helps you gather information you may need for your application in one spot.

